To whom it may concern,

I recently attended the "Mirror, Mirror: Finding Your True Reflection" retreat in Findlay, Ohio and brought 12 girls from our youth group. Shelley Hitz was the speaker for this retreat and she did an amazing job! I would like to take this opportunity to share with you some of the qualities she possesses which make her a valuable speaker for any event.

Right away, one can see that Shelley has a heart for helping young women to find their true identity in Christ. Her warm, friendly personality encourages her audience to open their hearts to the truth that she presents. She speaks in a way that is passionate, transparent and engaging, and her presentation is completely saturated with the Truth of God's Word.

The way that Shelley Hitz addresses the tough issues that really need to be addressed among today's teens is so refreshing! She shares from her own personal experiences and struggles to show how Jesus has worked in her life to bring her freedom and new life in Him. Shelley does a wonderful job using creative illustrations to help her audience really grasp what she is saying. These include videos, music, personal demonstrations, and interpretive dance. After each session, Shelley is also available to help facilitate small groups in which the girls get a chance to reflect and discuss what she's shared and how they can apply it to their own lives.

I would highly recommend Shelley Hitz to speak at your event. Please feel free to contact me if you would like to discuss any of this further.

Sincerely,

Michelle Neff
